

Jeffrey Leppert - Redwood Logistics

Jeff develops Redwood's commercial strategies for their enterprise mode and service offerings, helping forge value between their customers, carriers and people. These strategies include Redwood's various modes, service lines, business units and technologies.

Prior to his current commercial role, Jeff lead contract brokerage for Redwood Logistics, including their asset light intermodal division with North American coverage. The foundational knowledge & customers for Redwood's intermodal division are steeled from The Treppel Group, LLC, a company Jeff founded in 2008 and merged into Redwood in July 2013.

Jeff is backed by over 20 years of supply chain experience, Past President of The Traffic Club of Chicago, and active member in Transportation Intermediaries Association (TIA) and Intermodal Association of North America (IANA).
